A Season of Gratitude & Celebration!

Fall is here, Thanksgiving is just around the corner, and the holiday season is beginning to take shape! The coming weeks will bring plenty of opportunities for learning, creativity, celebration, and time together as a community. We're grateful for the energy and enthusiasm our students bring each day and look forward to all the fun ahead!

Stay & Play – Teachers' Day!

Thursday, November 19 · 3:30–4:15 PM

Join us on Thursday, November 19, from 3:30–4:15 PM for a special Teachers' Day Stay & Play! Parents are invited to join us on campus, and students are welcome to stay for fun activities, refreshments, and time together as a community, provided a parent or family member stays with them.

We'll send out an RSVP poll on Zalo, so please let us know if you'll be joining us!

Respect in Action Week

Monday–Friday, November 16–20

Next week, we'll be celebrating Respect in Action Week as part of our Wellbeing program for Year 1 and up! Throughout the week, students will take part in activities focused on kindness, inclusion, diversity, and building a positive, supportive community. We'll have different themes and activities planned to encourage students to appreciate one another, celebrate our differences, and put respect into action every day!

Vietnamese Culture Dress-Up Day

Monday, November 23

We'll be celebrating Vietnamese Culture Day a day early with a special dress-up day on Monday, November 23! We encourage students and staff to wear red and yellow or show off Vietnamese-themed clothing and accessories. Let's fill Palm River with a little Vietnamese pride!

Reminder: Tuesday, November 24, is Vietnamese Culture Day, and Palm River will be closed for the holiday. Enjoy the day off!
